

Custom Applicator/Operations

Spread fertilizer, liquid nitrogen. Apply farm chemicals using proper safety protective equipment

Load, unload and blend fertilizer as needed

Perform preventative maintenance and make adjustments and/or repairs to fertilizer equipment

Check equipment for proper application, spread pattern and make corrections as needed

Prepare proper truck reports and records including truck maintenance records as required

Maintain application/spray records

Assist with inventory control through adhering to established procedure and reports

Plan or assist in planning of spreading schedule

Attend schools and meetings as requested

Maintain a clean and safe application rig and working environment

Other duties as assigned. This will include grain elevator operations, picking up grain from farms and hauling grain to various markets

Qualifications:

High school diploma or demonstrated experience in agricultural education or combination of education and work experience

Current CDL a plus

Valid driver's license and applicable endorsements

Current certification or obtain Wisconsin Field and Vegetable Category 1.1 Commercial Applicators License.

Agronomy –Summer Intern

Location: Adell Cooperative, Adell,Wi. 920-994-4125

Looking for an individual looking for a hands-on work experience in the agronomy field.

Will assist in product delivery and application

Will scout fields for field conditions and identify weeds and report back with findings

Assist with crop scouting, soil sampling and field agronomic problem solving

Learn to do warehouse and agronomy plant operations

Assist with test plots

Preferred qualifications:

Majoring in an Agronomy field.

Valid driver's license

Willing to work extended hours.

Willing to learn all aspects of the agronomy business

Part Time CDL Driver

Spring and summer truck driver to deliver fertilizer and chemicals.

Must have Class A CDL.

Part time as needed basis.